Charles (Chuck) Milligan, JD, is the executive director of The Hilltop Institute which conducts research, analysis, and evaluation on behalf of government agencies, foundations, and other non-profit organizations at the national, state, and local levels. Mr. Milligan has primary responsibility for the quality of Hilltop's work for its clients, including the Maryland Medicaid program, other state and local agencies in Maryland, the federal government, other state Medicaid agencies, and private foundations. Mr. Milligan also coordinates Hilltop's work with the academic departments and research centers at UMBC. Prior to joining The Hilltop Institute, Mr. Milligan was vice president at The Lewin Group, where he provided consulting services to states and other clients, primarily involving the Medicaid program. His work was varied and included long-term care reform, coverage for the uninsured, and other projects involving publicly financed health care. Previously, he was Medicaid and SCHIP director for the state of New Mexico.
