

Friday, November 13, 2009

Health Care Provider Consolidation and Reform

MODERATOR

Laura Dummit

Principal Policy Analyst

SPEAKERS

Thomas Greaney, JD

Chester A. Myers Professor and Director

Center for Health Law Studies

School of Law

Saint Louis University

3700 Lindell Boulevard

St. Louis, MO 63108

Phone: 314/977-3995

E-mail: greanetl@slu.edu

Thomas (Tim) Greaney, JD, is Chester A. Myers Professor of Law and director of the Center for Health Law Studies at Saint Louis University School of Law. He is co-author of the nation's leading health law casebook, Health Law: Cases, Materials and Problems (6th edition); and Health Law, Practitioner Treatise and Hornbook editions, all published by Thomson/West. In 2007, Professor Greaney was named as Jay Healy Health Law Professor of the Year by the American Society of Law, Medicine and Ethics. Before joining the Saint Louis University faculty, he served as assistant chief of the Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, supervising health care antitrust litigation. Professor Greaney has also been a Fulbright Fellow in Brussels and has been a visiting professor at Seton Hall University, l'Universite Paris-Dauphine and Universite d'Orleans. He received his BA degree magna cum laude from Wesleyan University and his JD degree from Harvard Law School. He is a member of the American Antitrust Institute Advisory Board and Academic Links Committee of the American Association of Health Lawyers.

Dianne Kiehl

Executive Director

Business Health Care Group
9779 S. Franklin Drive, Suite 103
Franklin, WI 53132
Phone: 414/433-4719
Fax: 414/433-4975
E-mail: dkiehl@businesshealthcaregroup.org

Dianne Kiehl became the first executive director of the Business Health Care Group (BHCG) in 2004, taking the group from 14 companies to over 1000. Ms. Kiehl has over 25 years' experience managing health care. The majority of her career was as co-owner of CNR Health, a national managed care firm specializing in EAP and behavioral health. Prior to and following CNR, she held vice president positions with two Wisconsin-based preferred provider organizations and directed Medicaid for the Midwest region of United Healthcare.

Ms. Kiehl serves on the board of directors for the Greater Milwaukee Business Foundation on Health, Wisconsin Collaborative for Healthcare Quality, Wisconsin Health Information Exchange and the Wisconsin Health Information Organization. She is actively engaged in the National Business Coalition on Health and health care reform activities.

Ruth W. Brinkley

West Ministry Market Leader
Ascension Health

President and Chief Executive Officer
Carondelet Health Network
2202 N. Forbes Boulevard
Tucson, AZ 85745
Phone: 520/872-7796
Fax: 520/872-7852
E-mail: RBrinkley@carondelet.org

Ruth W. Brinkley is president and chief executive officer of Carondelet Health Network in Tucson, Arizona, and West Ministry market leader for Ascension Health. She provides strategic and operational leadership for Carondelet while promoting alignment among health ministries within the Western region and the system office on issues related to mission and vision. Ms. Brinkley shares accountability for strategic positioning and operational performance for St. Joseph Regional Medical Center, Lewiston, Idaho, and Lourdes Health Network, Pasco, Washington.

Ms. Brinkley has extensive health care leadership experience in strategic and service line planning and implementation, financial and operations improvement, patient care delivery, and physician alignment and integration. She has held leadership positions in local, regional, and national health care systems; academic and teaching health care institutions; and, health care management consulting. Prior to joining Carondelet and Ascension Health in 2007, she served as president and chief executive officer of Memorial Health Care System, a Catholic Health Initiatives (CHI) ministry in Chattanooga, Tennessee. She also has established and led national, financial and operations turn-around efforts, and large, complex health care consulting engagements. Ms. Brinkley is a registered nurse, and holds bachelor of science and master of science degrees in nursing from De Paul University, Chicago. She serves on the board of Chattem, Inc., is a fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives, and is a founding member of the Women Business Leaders of the U.S. Health Care Industry Foundation.

